Welcome to the Jets in Business

Our new Corporate Sporting Network designed for local Newcastle businesses to network and present their products or service outside of matchdays.

The Jets in Business provides the opportunity for companies to connect with our esteemed sponsors network of local and national businesses. When you join the Jets in Business you have the prospect to expand your business by interacting with like-minded executives at our exclusive events.

With our new era taking flight we invite you to be a part of our inaugural Jets in Business club, as we strive to develop unmatched opportunities for our dedicated partners and local community.

Join us as we soar to new heights in business synergy and community engagement.
